

TRAVEL

Travelling by Road

From Edinburgh:

Take the A90 over the Forth bridge (toll bridge) which connects to the M90. Continue north until junction 7 and take the A91 following the signs to St Andrews. Journey time is approximately one hour.

From Glasgow:

Take the M8 towards Edinburgh, and turn onto the A80 seven miles outside Glasgow. Continue on the M80 over the Kincardine Bridge which leads to the M90 (junction 6). Head north on the M90 until junction 7. Take the A91 and follow signs to St Andrews. Journey time is approximately one and a half hours.

By Bus

Stage Coach Buses run a service from both Glasgow and Edinburgh to St Andrews

- Glasgow to St Andrews Bus Station: Use Buses X24 and X26

- Edinburgh to St Andrews Bus Station: Use Bus X60

Use the link below to get Timetable information:

<http://www.stagecoachbus.com>

By Air

Airports at Glasgow and Edinburgh offer plenty of connections both nationally and internationally. Car Hire is available from the major firms at both airports and in the city centres. Dundee Airport offers flights from London City airport, Birmingham, & Belfast.

Edinburgh Airport Information:

Telephone +44 (0)131 333 1000

Fax +44 (0)131 344 3470

Glasgow Airport Information:

Telephone +44 (0)141 887 1111

Fax +44 (0)141 848 4769

Dundee Airport Information:

Telephone: +44 (0) 1382 643 242

Fax: +44 (0) 1382 641 263

By Train

St Andrews does not have its own train station - visitors should get off at Leuchars station and travel into St Andrews either by bus or taxi. The journey time is approximately 10 minutes. Numerous taxis wait outside the station.

Telephone: Railtrack National Rail enquiries 08457 48 49 50